

Augsburg Air Service GmbH has been a recognized service provider for aircraft sales and maintenance for over 40 years. The company is a subsidiary of Atlas Air Service AG, Ganderkesee, and currently employs approx. 85 qualified staff to provide ideal support for its international customer base. As a certified EASA Part 145 and CAMO+ operation, Augsburg Air Service offers a convincing all-round service with many special services.

Stellenangebot: Aircraft Mechanic (m/w/d) for our „Beechjet 400A / Nextant 400 XT“ Team

For our team we are looking for an ambitious aircraft mechanic for maintenance technology.

Your tasks:

- Maintenance & repairs on aircraft listed above – Line, Base and AOG

Your profile:

- Completed professional training as aircraft mechanic (maintenance field)
- Experience or CAT B1.1 License are advantageous, but not essential
- Good PC Skills, sense of responsibility & service oriented
- Willingness to work overtime and offer AOG support worldwide
- Professional English, spoken and written
- Positive passing of the security check according to § 7 Aviation Security Act

Start of work: immediately possible

We offer: A crisis-proof, independant function in a young team with performance related salary. We will offer training in maintenance of the aircraft listed above.

Please send us your informative application documents by post or e-mail:

Augsburg Air Service GmbH

Ms. Svetlana Fast
Human Resources
Flughafenstr. 5
86169 Augsburg

Telefon: 0821/7003-119
E-Mail: jobs@aaS-augsburg.de